

5. (Amended) The method of claim 1, wherein the step of [producing] identifying corrected text includes searching a dictionary using the portion of the recognition result.

Ad
4. (Amended) The method of claim 1, wherein the step of [producing] identifying corrected text comprises [producing] identifying corrected text from a portion of the recognition result for the utterance and from a recognition result for a second utterance.

5. (Amended) The method of claim 4, wherein the second utterance precedes the [first] utterance.

6. (Amended) The method of claim 4, wherein the second utterance follows the [first] utterance.

A3
8. (Amended) The method of claim 7, wherein the step of [producing] identifying corrected text comprises using confused pronunciation matching to identify text corresponding to the pronunciation.

A4
18. (Amended) The method of claim 17, wherein the step of [producing] identifying the corrected text comprises using confused spelling matching to identify the text corresponding to the spelling.